Editorial Review

Review

Overall, I was impressed with the examples provided of e-mails to residency program directors for requests for information as well as letters of intent. Many 'Sidebars' can be used as guides on their own, particularly the various lists of questions. From the faculty perspective, this text may be useful to supplement mentorship of students looking to attain residency. --American Journal of Pharmaceutical Education Volume 78, Number 2

This will make a nice addition to any pharmacy school's library to help students in their residency journey. It includes good information to help students become more competitive and seek the residency that is best for them by helping them ask the right questions. --Kim W. Benner, BS, PharmD Samford University McWhorter School of Pharmacy

The conversational writing style plus the sidebars with insights from residents and directors make this an easily accessible guidebook for busy pharmacy students juggling school and the pursuit of postgraduate training. --K.K. Mitchell Albany College of pharmacy and Health Sciences CHOICE November 2013 Vol.51 No.03
