From the Back Cover

FROM THE ECSTASY of victory to the anguish of defeat, the horrific tragedies and the bitter controversies, 50 Years of the Formula One World Championship captures every moment of significance as the world's most glamorous and most-watched sport roars towards the end of its first competitive half century. Through a stunning gallery of photographs and with specially commissioned interviews from some of the sport's biggest names, if there was ever a book that focused the reader's mind on what life is really like in the fast lane, then this is it.

About the Author

Bruce Jones, director of the Center for International Cooperation at New York University and a nonresident senior fellow at the Brookings Institution, recently served as deputy research director for the United Nations High-Level Panel on Threats, Challenges, and Change.
